Overview

SVL believes in providing an environment where skillful highly qualified, certificated instructors personalize instruction to support learning for all students and provide experiences that allow them to hypothesize, predict, manipulate objects, pose questions, research, investigate, imagine, and invent. For the SVL faculty, creating and delivering student-centered, inquiry-based, interactive instruction is the goal. Using formative assessment, instructors determine understanding of concepts. With high-quality feedback, instructors support the learning process and encourage learner success.
