Dear Superintendent of Public Instruction Reykdal,

The Puyallup Tribe of Indians wishes to renew the State of Washington – Puyallup Tribe of Indians, "State-Tribal Education Compact" with the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for an additional five (5) years as contemplated in Part II of the Compact.

The Puyallup Tribe will continue the Kindergarten through twelfth grade (K-12) configuration at Chief Leschi Schools and follow all assurances as outlined in the compact. We look forward to our continued excellent relationship with OSPI and the Office of Native Education.

We will continue to provide a meaningful and quality education for our community.

Sincerely,

Bill Sterud, Chairman
Puyallup Tribal Council

Marc Brouillet, Superintendent
Chief Leschi Schools
