WAC 180-96-045 SUBSTANTIAL AND WARRANTED REASON FOR LEAVING THE REGULAR HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION PROGRAM — DEFINITION. As used in this chapter, the term “substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program” means one or more of the following:

- (1) Personal problems which seriously impair the student’s ability to make reasonable progress toward high school graduation.
- (2) A financial crisis which directly affects the student and necessitates the student’s employment during school hours.
- (3) The lack of curriculum and instruction which constitutes appropriate learning experiences for the student.
- (4) The inability or failure of the school of attendance to adjust its program for the individual or otherwise make arrangements for enrollment in an educational program in a manner which enables the student to advance toward graduation with reasonable progress and success.
- (5) A determination by the designated employee that it is in the “best interest” of the student to drop the regular high school program for one of the following purposes:
 - (a) Enter a post secondary institution.
 - (b) Enter the military.
 - (c) Engage in employment.
- (6) PROVIDED, That no person under eighteen years of age (i.e., minor) shall be adjudged to have a substantial and warranted reason for leaving school unless the minor’s parents, guardian, or legal custodian, if available, agrees that dropping school is in the best interest of the minor.

WAC 131-48-050 MINIMUM PROFICIENCY LEVEL — DEFINITION. “Minimum proficiency level in Washington state is that set by the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges.” Currently the minimum proficiency level is a standard score of at least 145 on each of the four portions on the HSE test AND an average score of at least 145 on the entire test.

WAC 180-96-040 REGULAR HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION PROGRAM — DEFINITION. As used in this chapter, the term “regular high school education program” means a secondary education program operated pursuant to chapter 180-50 and 180-51 WAC leading to the issuance of a high school diploma.

WAC 180-96-050 RIGHT TO APPEAL. The following shall govern the finality of decisions of the designated employee:

- (1) If the decision of the designated employee is that the applicant has a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program, the decision of such designated employee shall be final.
- (2) If the decision of the designated employee is to deny the existence of a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program, the applicant shall have the right to appeal the decision to such board of directors in accordance with procedures adopted by the board of directors. The board of directors shall issue a decision within thirty calendar days of receipt of any appeal.
- (3) If a decision has been made by the board of directors of the district, such decision shall be final subject to an appeal to a court of law pursuant to RCW 28A.645.010.
